Annual Report 2008

Clergy Corner:

Annual Parish Meeting Edition, Rector's Report to the Congregation

As we prepare for our Annual Parish Meeting November 2, there is much to remember and much to give thanks for as 2008 draws to a close. Since our retreat in January, your Vestry has worked diligently to improve both our facilities and our fiscal viability. One has only to look to see these improvements: our beautiful new stone masonry sign fronting Academy Street; our newly paved parking lot which we share with the Good Samaritan Clinic; new replacement windows for the 1960 office/nursery wing (currently being installed); and improved grounds keeping thanks to Story Rice, Karen Hall and many others. Also, Mary Haynes and her cleaning crew continue to do an amazing job in keeping the interior of our buildings in beautiful condition. Please take time to thank these faithful folks and to thank God for their many labors of love. All of these projects have been accomplished through gifts above and beyond the general fund commitments of our parishioners and to date no general operating fund monies have been expended to complete these works. Also, take time to thank God for our Diocese and our Bishop from whom we have just received $25,000 in grant monies and $8,600 in no-interest loan monies for the completion of our parking lot project. If you ever wonder what your diocese does for our parish, please consider this: since 1990 St. Andrew's has received some $135,000 in grant monies from the Episcopal Foundation of Western North Carolina for "bricks and mortar" projects, together with some $58,600 in no-interest loans from the "Restoration Fund" of the diocese. Likewise, we have received over $10,000 in diocesan "Mission and Society Grants" matching funds for outreach ministry, plus an additional $15,000 in "Human Hurt and Hope Fund" grants for the start-up of the Good Samaritan Clinic.

Our annual contribution to the mission and ministry of the Diocese of Western North Carolina is an outward and visible sign of our gratitude for our partnership in ministry with our Bishop and diocesan family from whom we have received so much. Your Vestry is on record to increase our giving to the diocese until we return to the 10% level that we once enjoyed, and which is the minimum pledge percentage asked of each parish. Currently, our pledge for 2008 is at 4.8% of our 2006 budgeted income, or $7,500. In 2009, we are committed to increasing to 5.8% of our 2007 income, or $10,000. Our plan is to increase 1% per year until we regain the tithe. Bishop Taylor has told us that our diocese would have an additional $400,000 of ministry and program income if all of our parishes were at the 10% minimum level. The average parochial pledge in our diocese is 8.3% which is about ½ of the Province IV (Southeastern US dioceses) average of 16%.

Continuing on the fiscal ministry front, your Vestry has in 2008 transferred our mortgage obligations to Mennonite Mutual Aid Association from RBC Centura Bank. This move has resulted in smaller monthly payments and much better terms overall. It is absolutely amazing to realize that the principal amount of our mortgage has decreased from $300,000 to $181,000 in just four years time. Again, this remarkable feat is entirely due to the herculean efforts of you, the people of God at St. Andrew's. Through our Holy Smoke Ministry Team begun by Dean Hines and currently headed by Nancy and Terry Rice, and through the sacrificial giving of time, talent and treasure by so many of you this mortgage has become entirely manageable and is no longer something to be feared. We have so much to be thankful for as God's people in this parish.

Having said that, we still have some distance to go to balance the General Operating Fund budget of St. Andrew's. Your Vestry is hard at work to find ways to reduce expenditures in every area where it is faithful and reasonable to do so. At the October meeting, the Vestry appointed an ad hoc budget committee of the Rector, the Sr. and Jr. Wardens, the Treasurer and vestry members Richard Lance and Terry Rose to take a hard look at the expense side of the budget with the goal of trimming where it is reasonably possible to trim. At this point, we literally have no idea of what the income side of the budget will look like. We have to date received very few commitments for 2009 as we prepare for the Annual Meeting November 2. What we do know is that our parish budget is entirely dependent upon the generosity and stewardship response of the total membership of St. Andrew's. As your priest and pastor, I think it is important for you to know that I would never ask you to do something that I am not willing to do, especially in the area of Stewardship. Our family commits a tithe of our income to God through St. Andrew's each year as we have done since I was called to serve as your rector. Likewise, any member who agrees to be nominated for Vestry service signs a Vestry Covenant, one provision of which is to tithe or to work toward the 10% level of giving as a goal while serving as an elected leader of the parish. I want you to know that your ordained and elected leadership team is totally committed to the fiscal health and viability of our beloved parish.

I also want you to know that your leadership team is fully cognizant of the financial and economic realities that we are all facing. Times are tough, and we don't know how long the current crisis will last. What I do know is that this parish walks by faith and not by sight. We literally live hand to mouth and Sunday to Sunday in our financial life. We have no endowment, we have no cash reserves, we have no stock portfolio. What we do have in abundance is a tremendously generous core group of committed parishioners—yourselves. Most importantly, we have the sure provision of a gracious and generous Father in Heaven who has never failed to supply all of our needs and more from His storehouse of blessings. God indeed has a track record at St. Andrew's, and we can continue to have faith in what God will do in the future.

We are all very aware that the economic landscape of the nation and world is changing and that we will have to adjust spending priorities and stewardship goals in order to engage faithfully the emerging realities of a new era. By the time that we gather for our Annual Meeting the Budget Committee will have presented its recommendations to the Vestry who will vote on the proposed budget to be presented to you on All Saints Sunday, November 2. You may expect to see a spending plan which is much leaner, much more realistic, and which mandates that we live within our means as a parish family.

What this will mean in a practical sense is that we will all be called upon to support our common life in more creative and more faithful ways. You may be asked to donate office or kitchen supplies. Our youth may need to do more fund raisers to support their program activities. More of the communion visits to the sick or homebound may be made by Lay Eucharistic Visitors to save on clergy travel expenses (the IRS mileage reimbursement rate is now $0.585 per mile). You may be asked to volunteer time in the office for receptionist and light clerical work. All the baptized will be asked to join together in the total mission, ministry, and program of St. Andrew's. At the end of the day this is not a bad thing; indeed it is a more faithful New Testament model of being church, a model which empowers and equips the laity to do what we were all baptized to do.

As that great theologian, Bob Dylan, once sang, "The times, they are a'changing..." This has never been more true than it is now, and we must have the faith, the courage, and the flexibility to change with them. What we need to remember most of all is what the angel told Mary: "Be Not Afraid!" For all of the changes and chances of the unseen future we are still God's beloved people and these are very exciting times to be a faithful community of committed Christians in the world. I can't tell you what a joy it is to continue to serve Christ as your priest and pastor in these amazing, changing times.

Canton Community Kitchen

Juanita Dixon

The Canton Community Kitchen, 98 Pisgah Drive, had their public Grand Opening Saturday, October 25, from 3 until 6 pm. The ribbon cutting was at 3 pm with church and community leaders. The Leo Club members from Pisgah High School conducted tours of the new facility and served refreshments.

Altar Guild*Lois Lynn*

What a wonderful, faithful, dedicated group of women we have who make up St. Andrew's-on-the-Hill Altar Guild. Every week someone is polishing silver, washing linens, ironing linens, setting up the altar for Sunday morning services, and the list could go on and on. Special recognition goes to Beverly Arrington and Karen Hall for their talents in making the Advent wreath and decorating the church so beautifully for Easter Sunday; to Mary Helen Dunnam and Madeleine Moroz, who although are only here for part of the year, pitch in and take their turn; to Kitty Williams, Patsy Stevenson, and Jean Santucci who although are gainfully employed still find time to serve; to Maggie Mathewes who is always available to wash and iron the impossibly difficult fair linen and any other linens that need attention; to Joan Bemis and Kathy Beck who lovingly bake the communion bread; and to Joan Garland, Mary Haynes, Jeanne Morton who are always willing to pitch in to help whenever and wherever needed.

St. Andrew's is very blessed to have each and every one of these special woman who serve so tirelessly in the "quiet ministry" and our grateful thanks go out to each and every one of you.

Newcomers Classes 2008-2009 Begin*Russell Smith, Deacon*

Newcomer (Pilgrims, Inquirers) classes for 2008-2009 will begin Sunday, Advent II, December 7, at 9:30 a.m. in the Christian Education Building.

These classes are for newcomers or old comers or for anyone who would like to learn more about our Episcopal Church USA.

We will begin with an instructed Eucharist, continue with the Prayer Book and Questions on the Way, a little book that answers frequently asked questions.

The classes will continue at least until Easter 2009. Confirmation will be May 31, 2009 when Bishop Porter Taylor visits St. Andrew's.

If you are interested, please contact Russell or Teresa so that we may have ample materials.

Parish Life*Karen Hall*

I'm sure you realize that we worship in one of the most beautiful church homes - anywhere! Have you ever noticed that our church home is always very clean and polished? Did you realize that it is our own family members who volunteer their time and commitment to do the required maintenance that the rest of us enjoy.

Some folks do a great deal every month and others do smaller jobs. Some work year round and other crews volunteer for three months at a time. We all need to remember that each of them do their part to keep our church family home visibly and invisibly clean and sanitary.

Gary Morehouse - offices, office trash

Pat Fulbright - railings, etc.

Marylin and Smith Nicholls - choir, organ, piano, lectern

Kitty Williams - sanctuary, sacristy, floors, pew cushions

Stephanie Denard, Samantha Sutton, Bob Klettner,

Marcia Kane, Robert and Brenda Thurston, Sally

Gamewell, Mary Haynes, John and Connie

Mozelewski - undercroft, bathrooms, foyer

Mary Haynes - recruit, train and coordinate volunteers; sanctuary, sacristy, pew cushions, windows, kitchen floor, trash

Joyce Lackey, Nell Hines - as needed

Please consider your potential participation in this important ministry for our church family home. Mary will be recruiting for a new schedule of responsibilities required for the upcoming year. And, please be reminded that it is everyone's kitchen and undercroft we share downstairs, so remember to share in the volunteer work required to keep your family's "second" kitchen and family room clean and orderly.

Thank you in advance for supporting both of these vital needs in our Parish.

Outreach*Carole Talman*

This has been a rather unusual year for our Outreach ministry team. As it has worked out, it will be the end of our year when our efforts will materialize.

This is not to say that individuals have not been working the entire year serving in many capacities in our communities. I'm so proud of all the hours you volunteer in so many different areas of outreach.

However, we are really hoping that the yard-sale portion of our Christmas Bazaar will result in a goodly amount of money that can be distributed to many community services that serve so many in our area. We are all aware that this coming winter may be especially difficult for families.

Therefore, please contribute your gently used treasures for this sale. Place your items on the top floor of the Commons area and be sure to join us Saturday, Nov. 22 for a lot of fun and fellowship. Maybe our efforts will make a difference.

Pastoral Care*Karen Hall*

Our St. Andrew's family continues to perform so very many sincere acts of thoughtfulness to our fellow members.

Juanita Dixon has recorded the following numbers reported to her for this year as of the end of September:

678 cards sent

123 visits made

77 calls made

12 calls accepted from prison

13 food taken

15 gifts and other

She has a list of homebound members and their addresses if you would like a copy. And remember to check the bulletin each Sunday for members and people in our community who need all of our thoughtfulness and prayers. You can keep Juanita posted of your random and deliberate acts of family care and kindness at (sjdixon28716@yahoo.com).

"Treasures for a Treasure"Lake Logan Fundraiser Announced

We have two new and exciting ways for you to help our beautiful Lake Logan.

1. Look through your jewelry box or your bank lockbox and select a piece or two of jewelry that isn't "you", but might be perfect for somebody else! Committee members for "Treasures for a Treasure" will happily pick them up and get them ready for the five-day estate jewelry event in downtown Asheville. With the generous help of Wick & Greene jewelers, the donated jewelry will be sold November 11- 15 at the store on Patton Avenue, with all the proceeds going to Lake Logan and Camp Henry. This is a check-free way of helping our beautiful Lake Logan, and you will have a tax deduction for 2008!

2. Put the evening of November 11 on your calendar and come to Wick & Greene Jewelers from 5:30 to 8:00 P.M. for the kick off cocktail party for "Treasures for a Treasure." Bring a group! Estate jewelry is a great value for the dollar. Christmas will be around the corner and there is no sales tax!

If you would like to donate a piece of jewelry to "Treasures for a Treasure," or have any other questions, please call Vinton Murray at 828-277-5489 or Cheryl Smith at 828-646-0095.

Youth*Wendy Curley*

The youth were busy this year. We had a small group, but I think we had a lot of fun. We spent a lot of the year trying to raise the funds for our mission trip.

Thank you all who helped us in that adventure. The support was amazing. We do hope to have a slide show to share our trip with the parish. We had a great time in our 10 days on the road to South Dakota and back. Youth from St. Andrews have been active also at the diocesan level serving on Youth Council.

POG Report & Creative Ministries*Kathy Beck and Terry Rose*

Creative Ministries is hard at work on St. Andrew's Annual Christmas Bazaar. It will be held Saturday, November 22, from 9 a.m. till 2 p.m. in the undercroft. All members are invited to contribute and attend. We still need all manner of crafts, baked and canned goods, and good quality white elephant (vintage treasures we're calling it this year) items. Orders will be taken for Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys from Holy Smoke and also for St. Andrew's upcoming cookbooks. A beautiful tablecloth, a weaving, and a set of Japanese needlepoint pictures will be raffled. Raffle tickets are on sale now. Goodies will be on sale in the kitchen so you can eat while you shop. Please contact Kathy or Terry or any of the booth coordinators with suggestions, ideas, or questions.

Coordinators are as follows: Vintage Treasures (Outreach) – Carole Talman, Holy Smoke – Nancy Rice, Kitchen/Breakfast items – Karen Hall, Cookbooks/Canned Goods – Margie Matthews, Baked Goods/Candies – Kathy Beck, Christmas Crafts – Rose Rich, Raffle – Lois Lynn, and Publicity – Karen Hall. Volunteers will be needed to bake, craft, work booths, and support the church.

Nimble Fingers has been hard at work producing crafts for the Bazaar. Anyone who does crafts with their "nimble" fingers is invited to join us to create and donate. We are meeting October 25 and November 8 from 10 a.m. till 12 p.m. to work on Bazaar creations to sell. We've already made lots and lots of gift tags, gift bags, and holiday bows. Materials are provided and pattern books are plentiful. After the Bazaar, the group will go back to meeting the second Saturday of each month.

The Healthy Living groups facilitated by Mary Morehouse, are still going strong. They meet each Monday at 7 p.m. and each Tuesday at 5 p.m. If you have some unhealthy habits you'd like to change, check out one of these groups to get the support you want.

Holy Smoke has been incredibly busy this year. They just completed the Church St. Arts and Crafts Festival, making over $2,700. As of this writing, they will have just completed the Apple Harvest Festival in Waynesville. Then it's on to Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys. This group is an incredibly fun ministry and contributes greatly to our building fund.

Buildings and Grounds Annual Report – 2008*Nancy Rice, Junior Warden*

The Year of 2008 has been a Project Year.

- The fire extinguishers have been checked, recharged, or replaced.
- Windows with storms and screens were donated for Fr. Tim's office, the Parish Administrator's office, and the nursery.
- The chairs in the foyer were re-upholstered with the help of a donation.
- It became necessary to replace the old St. Andrew's sign. A memorial donation was given for the new sign, restoration of the St. Andrew's cross, and the stone work to create a new sign in keeping with the design of the church. All of the new stone came from the Pigeon River.
- Additional lighting for the Choir and Lectern were added.
- A donated stained glass light was hung in the vestibule and the other stained glass light was hung in the sacristy.
- Six new St. Andrew's street signs were placed around town. Also the handicapped parking sign was installed at the top of the parking lot.
- New stainless steel bolts were put in the Memorial Garden and a new gate and sign at the rear entrance to the Garden.
- The large dying white oak tree was removed in the parking lot across the street.
- The parking lot across the street was graded, paved and striped

Thank you to all of the volunteers and all of the parishioners who donated toward these projects.

POG*Kathy Beck*

The POG group will not meet until the first of the year, with so much going on between now and then, we thought it better to wait for after the holidays. The group is thinking of having a Christmas Party on the 27th of December, but we will let everyone know if that is going to happen.

Get to know your vestry nomineesJoe Branson

I grew up in Waynesville and have lived in Canton for the past 10 years. In fact, I've been blessed to reside my whole life in Haywood County where I make my living as a pharmaceutical representative with AstraZeneca Pharmaceuticals. My work takes me all over Western North Carolina calling on pediatricians, pulmonologists and allergists providing resources to fight uncontrolled asthma.

I've been married to my wife Deah for fifteen years, and she too is a Haywood County native. She is currently employed with the Haywood County school system as a special education teacher at Clyde Elementary. With no kids, the extent of our family consists of five four legged furry children.

Deah and I have been church members of St. Andrew's since 2005. We came to St. Andrew's in search of a new spiritual home after feeling estranged from the previous church we attended. We found St. Andrew's by accident or simply by the grace of God. We were so impressed with the fellowship and how people in the congregation went out of their way to make us feel welcome. I've heard numerous testimonials from visitors and other new members who have had the same experience. The inclusiveness exhibited by the congregation truly makes St. Andrew's feel like home and is what I think is the most defining quality of this church.

I'm currently serving and about to complete a one year term on the St Andrew's vestry vacated by Dean Hines. I've had a wonderful experience with a vestry that truly loves and cares for the welfare of this church. I would be honored to serve a full term over the next three years.

Stephanie Dennard

I'm always at a loss when asked to tell about myself; my initial thought is "I'm just me, nothing special or out of the ordinary; just me". So when I was asked to write this article about myself for the newsletter, I didn't quite know how to begin or what to say, so I guess I'll just start at the beginning and go from there.

I was raised as a typical Southern Baptist – consequently as soon as I was old enough to make my own decisions I spent a good few many years away from “organized” religion. I did however, retain a very strong spirituality and faith in God; and for a while it was enough for me just to have that even though I wasn't part of a church or a worshipful community. However, when my son Bailey was born and started to grow up and ask questions, I began to think – how can I instill in him the faith that I have? I was pretty sure I couldn't do it by myself so I started with visiting a large Baptist church that a colleague of mine at the time attended, which will remain nameless in the spirit of goodwill and tolerance. She always exuded an air of calmness and well-being which she attributed to her faith. I figured if her church could help her that much, maybe Bailey and I could benefit from going there too. So I went, and enjoyed the huge movie screens and modern music, but I was a little bothered by the fact that no-one introduced themselves or even inquired as to who I was, much less asked Bailey who or how he was and would he like to come to Sunday School? So after two visits I decided that environment wasn't for us. Then, fortunately, another co-worker asked me to visit St. Andrews. The only time I had ever even set foot in an Episcopal church was to play a trumpet solo at Christmas time when I was in High School (a long, long time ago). At any rate, I was a little intimidated because I had never experienced a prayer book or had a need for kneelers or instructions for the service. I spent my first service at St. Andrews juggling the prayer book and the hymnal and trying to figure out where I needed to be in which and hoping that I didn't drop one or the other. But what I remember most is that Carole Talman came up to me and started a conversation, and Eleanor Hazell invited me to Nimble Fingers and offered to teach me how to knit; something I have always wanted to know how to do. I brought Bailey with me the next Sunday and when he saw Father Tim, he just started smiling and I knew I was in the right place. I have never in my life felt so welcomed and I thank God everyday that He led me to St. Andrews.

So now I'm an old hand at Holy Smoke and teach Sunday School for the elementary children and even clean the undercroft every second Friday. I can't effectively put into words how much St. Andrews means to me, but for what it's worth, I never imagined that I would find a place or a people that would incite me to get out of bed, voluntarily no less, before ten o'clock every Sunday morning; much less seek out a position that would require “extracurricular” attendance. To put it in a nutshell, I love all of you, unconditionally, unceasingly and I am here for you for whatever you need me for. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for having me as a part of your family.

Bob Klettner

Robert “Bob” Klettner, born in Orlando Florida, grew up in the Episcopal Church at Saint Luke Cathedral. I’m blessed to have 3 grown children and 8 grand children. Started to attend Saint Andrews in March 2005 and became active with the Holy Smoke ministry. Engaged to Marcia Kane and will be married in St. Andrews in January 2009. Work experience includes 35 years with a major Florida bank. After retiring from the bank became Executive Director for Habitat for Humanity in Seminole County for 2 years. Education includes B.S. degree from Florida Southern College and a MBA from Crummer Graduate School at Rollins College.

Holy Smoke Annual Report – 2008*Nancy Rice, Holy Smoke Ministry Team Member*

Holy Smoke has been very busy in 2008. We had booths at 7 festivals and 22 catered events. Nine new people have joined our Volunteer Crew this year (we always have room for more – no experience necessary). Thanks to Ted Hendrickson, our inventory is easily packed and ready to go.

The Holy Smoke Ministry Team consists of Gary Morehouse, Terry Rice, Nancy Rice, Ted Hendrickson, Bob Klettner and Dave Clark. Terry Rose and Kathy Beck are our Vestry Liaisons.

We still have 2 Credos, Thanksgiving and Christmas Orders.

Thanksgiving we will be smoking Turkeys, Turkey Breasts, Roasting Hens and Stuffed Pork Loins.

Christmas we will be smoking Turkeys, Beef Briskets, Stuffed Pork Loins, and Salmon.

All of the proceeds from Holy Smoke events go to reduce the principal of St. Andrew's Mortgage. So far in 2008, we had made $17,743, and we have reduced the mortgage by $16,400. We also gave our $333 pledge and $1,000 to Lake Logan Episcopal Center.

Thank you to all of our tireless volunteer. Without you Holy Smoke's Ministry would not be possible.
